

EULOGY

What one adjective would you use to describe him/her?

Did he/she/ have any particular loves or hobbies?

If you could name one value or lesson he/she most wanted to teach the next generation, what would it be?

What one achievement or accomplishment would make his/her eyes light up when you mentioned it?

What were some of his/her favorite phrases or sayings?

Did he/she ever put anything up on the wall (a picture, a motto, a clipping) that expresses who he/she really was?

Did he/she like his/her first name? _____ Did he/she have any nicknames?

Was there a cause or movement that he/she felt deeply about and supported with time and finances? _____

If he/she could have me say one thing during the funeral, what do you think it would be?

Why do you think this world is a little different because of him/her?